Press Release

Aboriginal Community Celebrates

20th Anniversary of Aboriginal Land Returns: 10 Dec 2015
11:00am – 1pm

The Aboriginal community is celebrating the 20th anniversary of the return of land tomorrow at piyura kitina/Risdon Cove.

“We are opening our land to the general public for guided walks showcasing the improvements we’ve made there. We will also have many displays of our land management work from all parts of our Island, videos showing some of our innovations including traditional burning, and accounts of our ‘on country’ trips. We will also hear how things have changed since 1995 and the significance of land returns to our community”, said Miss Trudy Maluga, State Secretary of the Tasmanian Aboriginal Centre.

Miss Maluga said there would also be closed sessions in the afternoon for the Aboriginal community to discuss cultural issues and to plan land returns for the next 20 years.

Miss Maluga will be available on site for interview tomorrow from 10.45am.
