

Tasmanian Aboriginal Centre

Land Management on-ground Supervisor North-West

Expressions of interests are invited from Aborigines with previous supervisory and land management experience. The successful person will ensure work is carried out in accordance with established land management plans and that work is conducted efficiently and safely. They will supervise up to two permanent or casual on-ground workers.

The Supervisor should be able to motivate and inspire a commitment to the restoration of healthy Aboriginal land. A certificate in land management is preferred and an unrestricted driver's licence is required. Some training may be provided if required.

The position is full time but hours may be negotiable. Salary will be negotiated between $54,564-$60,504 per annum.

Queries to Andry Sculthorpe on 0410 237 404 or email andry.s@tacinc.com.au

Application for Employment Form and Position Description are available by emailing payroll@tacinc.com.au

Expressions of interest, briefly outlining why you think you are the right person for the job, will be accepted until close of business, Monday 8th April.

Please email your Application for Employment Form and Expression of Interest documents to payroll@tacinc.com.au or post to:

Human Resources (Confidential – Employment Application)
Tasmanian Aboriginal Centre
GPO Box 569
HOBART TAS 7001